

REVELATION 19

1. What then does John hear?
 2. What do they say belong to the Lord our God? (4)
-
-
-
-
 3. What is said of His judgments? (2)
-
-
 4. Why? (2)
-
-
 5. What do they say about Babylon in v. 3?
 6. What then do the elders and living creatures do? (2)
-
-
 7. What does the voice from the throne command to do?
 8. To whom is this command given? (4)
-
-
-
-
 9. What does John hear next? What does it sound like? (2)

-
-
 10. What does this voice say about the Lord God Omnipotent?
-

REVELATION 19

11. What does the voice urge to do in v. 7? (3)

-
-
-

12. Why? (2)

-
-

13. What is this bride arrayed in?

14. What is this fine linen, according to v. 8?

15. Now go back and list out who says “Alleluia” (praise God) in this chapter.

16. Back to v. 11, what does John see when heaven opens?

17. List out everything given about the Rider of the horse from vs. 11-16!

REVELATION 19

18. List out all information about the armies in heaven, given in v. 14.

19. What does the angel in v. 17 address?

20. What does he command them to do? For what?

21. Who is on the menu? (10)

-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-
-

22. Who is gathered to make war against the Lord and His army in v. 19? (3)

-
-
-

23. Who is captured? (2)

- -
-

24. What happens to them?

25. What happens to the rest of the rebels? (2)

-

-

Application

- In this chapter, we see an interesting complete picture. In heaven, a worship session is happening. On earth, men gather in rebellion against the Lord. This black-and-white image of the spiritual setup is so stark, and yet it is always this way. There is flesh and spirit (Romans 7), the world and God (James 4:4), and they are mutually exclusive. Do you see your life as simply as the black-and white that is portrayed here, or do you tend to complicate things with the theoretical?
- Pray for the eternal perspective of the black-and-white nature sin and holiness.